

From the Bozeman airport, turn left onto the frontage road for six miles.

Turn left at the first stop light, immediately turning right at the next stoplight.

Get onto I-90 East towards Billings.

Go approximately 23 miles to Exit 333 for Livingston and US 89 South.

Turn left (south) on US 89 for 37 miles to mile marker 17.

Turn right onto Tom Miner Creek Road.

Cross the steel bridge and turn left at the "T". Follow that road for about 2.5 miles continuing to go up into the basin. You will bear right at a fork in the road. Just stay on the road most traveled and you will be fine.

Our archway is on the left with signs and flowers. You won't be able to see the lodge from the road, but we are a little over half a mile up the hill.

We are about 75 miles from the Bozeman airport. It will usually take about 90 minutes if you are taking your time.

If you are coming from Gardiner you will turn left onto Tom Miner Creek Road just after mile marker 16 on US 89.

If you are coming from Billings you will still take exit 333 from I-90 and turn left (south) on US 89.
